Hi Jeri,

My original email was bounced back due to large attachments. I've deleted their letter and attachment to King County as I'm sure you already have it. Anyhow, attached are what you may not have.

Hi Jeri,

As a follow-up to our earlier phone conversation, attached are the information I've received from the complainant(s). Also see additional info in their email message to me – I've intentionally deleted their email address as this individual contact would like to remain "anonymous":

Hi Chan,

We have one more piece of information that may be useful. The company name "Cascade Utilities" was identified on a truck that is engaged with more filling/grading today. It appears identical to the truck (dark green dump truck) that has been observed doing similar work in the wetlands areas over the past few years. The logo on the truck also matches the logo on this company's website: <http://cascadeutilities.com/>.

There is continued activity this morning and large piles (several truck loads, at least) of gravel, rock and dirt are staged at the site with heavy machinery."

FYI - I'll be on annual leave from June 30 – July 9th, if we need to coordinate on anything (joint inspection, etc), please contact my colleague (cc'ed in this email):
